

"Soul Food" from the Psalms (135-139)

Sunday Evening, August 16, 2026 – WOCC – Rich Howell

EVENING DEVOTION: Is Your God Too Small?

No matter what our concept of God might be, it doesn't change who God is or what He's like: His true nature, character, attributes. But the one thing our concept of God does change is _____ to Him. As Psalms 135-139 remind us, we should have an _____ view of God. Because the more we _____ about Him, the more we _____ how little we _____, and how much more there is to _____! As I like to say, "Any God _____ for me to fully comprehend would not be nearly _____ for me to _____!"

Psalm 135—Our God Is so _____ and so _____!

Psalm 136—Our God is so _____ in His _____ for us!

Psalm 138—Our God is so _____ and so _____!

Psalm 139—Our God _____ us so _____!

PERSONAL REFLECTION & APPLICATION of Psalm 139

A. How do you feel about God's "omniscience" (Psalm 139:1-6)

In particular, how does it make you feel to be so "well-known?"

Do you have mixed feelings about that?

What is David asking God to do in Psalm 139:23-24?

Are you willing to echo his prayer?

B. How do you feel about God's "omnipresence?" (Psalm 139:7-12; Heb 4:13)

Why would anybody want to run and hide from God? (Gen 3:8; Jonah Chapter 1; Rev 6:12-17)

What do we learn from these verses about God's "presence?" (Psalm 5:4; Isaiah 59:1-2; Mat 28:20b; Acts 17:26-27; James 4:8a; Mark 7:6; 2 Thes 1:8-9)
